Go therefore and make disciples of all nations...

WELCOME

From Executive Director Tim Sprankle

During high school, my friends and I started a Bible study with our classmates. We met weekly in homes to sing, pray, and learn God's Word. We called ourselves the Young Disciples of Christ or YDC.

This was a formative season in my faith. Jesus consumed me. I followed Him, talked about Him, and dedicated my life to serving Him.

Thirty years later, I'm a Middle-Aged Disciple of Christ (MADC). I remain committed to His call to make disciples of Jesus. He's with us in every age and life stage. He wants us to be ALL IN for all time.

Thus, we will build on the theme from Charis Fellowship Conference, doing a DEEP DIVE into the Great Commission.

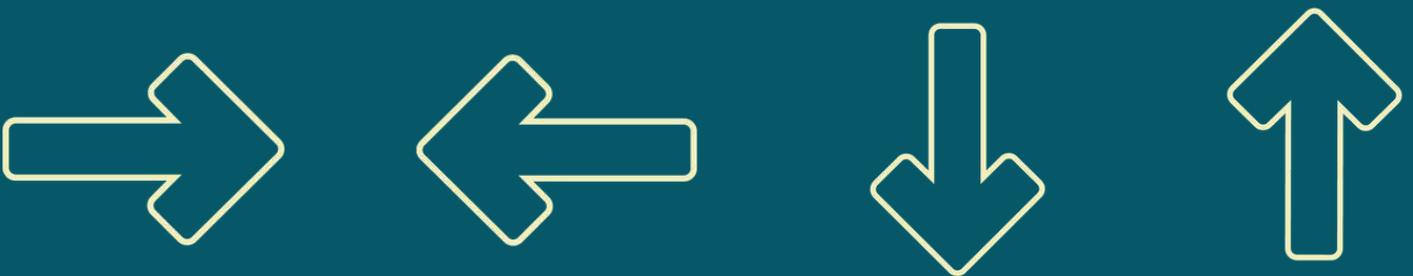

ALL IN

A Deep Dive into the Great Commission

THE THEME

Charis Fellowship Conference set the stage for what it means to be a disciple who makes disciples. At Central Focus Retreat, we're going to continue looking at discipleship and the commandment from Jesus to be disciple-makers. Whether or not you attended conference, this retreat will help you deepen your understanding of the Great Commission and engage with the mission.

As we study the Great Commission in Matthew 28:18–20, we'll look at the themes of authority, multiplication, identity, and obedience. We'll also hear testimonies from several leaders about how they've experienced Jesus' presence.

MATTHEW 28:18–20

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

PRAYER PROMPTS

FRIDAY EVENING | Matthew 5:3-10

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

SATURDAY MORNING | Written by Tim Sprankle

Father, I am your beloved child and masterpiece. Fill me with your love.

Jesus, I am your brother and ambassador. Fill me with your life.

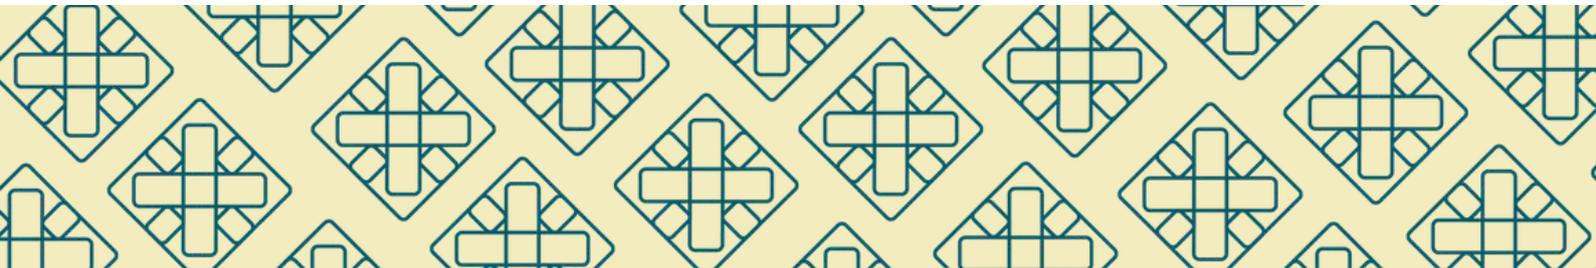

Spirit, I am your temple and trustee of your gifts. Fill me with your power.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON | Acts 1:8

"But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

ADDITIONAL READING AND LISTENING

While the Bible is our ultimate authority and source of truth, there are a lot of other resources we can utilize in our pursuit of fulfilling the Great Commission. Below is a list of books and podcasts curated and recommended by Tim Sprankle.

01	For a biblical theology of power and how to steward it well	Read Playing God by Andy Crouch
02	For a summary of Jesus' disciple-making methodology and its implications for us	Read Four Chair Discipleship by Dan Spader or The Master Plan of Evangelism by Robert Coleman
03	For thirty affirmations from Scripture about your identity in Christ	Read Your Identity in Christ by Neil T. Anderson
04	For a philosophical and theological treatment of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount that calls us to develop a "curriculum for Christlikeness"	Read The Divine Conspiracy by Dallas Willard
05	For a class on enjoying Jesus in the everyday ordinary events of life	Read Practicing the Presence of Jesus by Brother Lawrence

Session Questions

Dig Deeper Prompts

SESSION ONE

Where do you see authority struggles in our world, your church, and your own heart? What are ways to magnify Jesus' authority?

SESSION TWO

What is your plan for disciple-making? What are some specific ways to reach the rising generation and least reached nations?

SESSION THREE

What is missing from your "curriculum for Christlikeness"? Are you more like a content deliverer or life coach in your teaching style?

SESSION FOUR

When do you enjoy Jesus? How do you enjoy Jesus? How can you create more space to be with Jesus?
